

University of Hohenheim

Work, Digitalization & Sustainability

Location: On-Campus

Language: English

Dates: July 4th – July 22nd

Courses:

- Equality of Opportunity and distributive Justice through Participation?
- Generating Sustainable Innovation
- Ethical and religious Dimensions of Sustainability
- Sustainability, Digitalization and Work Relationships
- Innovation Economics and the Bioeconomy Transformation
- Open Science: Why should we care?
- Smart Sustainability – A Hot Topic in Research and Practice
- Tying Up Loose Ends. Integrating Consumers' Psychology into an Interdisciplinary Perspective on Sustainable Digital Change

Normal Fee: 1000 euros

ZSEM Nominated Students Fee: 0 euros - students from partner universities who are nominated by the international office of their home university can be exempt from tuition fee

Deadline to Apply: 31st March 2022.

Deadline for Nominations: 25th March 2022.

Complete Information: <https://wiso.uni-hohenheim.de/summerschool>