

SMU Global Summer Programme (GSP)

Where?

Singapore

When?

24 June to 19 July 2024

How is program organized?

GSP 2024 consists of three tracks: Digital Intelligence [NEW], Asian Insights and Sustainable Futures, with 15 courses specially designed to empower your students with the necessary knowledge and skills from these emerging disciplines

Language & needed documents

Language: English

Documents needed: Your latest academic transcript or official acceptance letter from your university. (If English is not the main language of instruction at your university) Either your IELTS or TOEFL test results. We admit students who score 6.5 and above for IELTS, or 577 points (paper-based) or 90 points (Internet-based) for TOEFL.

ECTS worth

Each course is worth 6-7.5 ECTS points

Students can choose to study up to two courses from any track! Visit our website for the course outlines.

Costs

Application: SGD 150

Tuition: SGD 3,270 for one course SGD 5,450 for two courses

Miscellaneous: SGD 230

* Programme fees do not cover other costs, v such as accommodation, travel visa, etc. * Upon acceptance of our offer of admission to the programme, non-SMU students are required to make an advance v payment of SGD 1,000 (as part of the tuition fee). We only accept payment online via Visa or Mastercard.

Application deadline

April 15th 2024 (Singapore Standard Time, GMT +8)

Early Bird Special: For non-nominated (fee-paying) students, complete your application and payment by 29 February 2024 to earn a spot in our popular Drone Flying Workshop!

Application link

More information can be found at SMU's brochure

For more information contact: jaguayo@zsem.hr