Welcome to Emory University

Established in 1836, Emory is a progressive teaching, research and service university, comprised of nine major academic divisions and numerous centers for research and advanced study, as well as a broad base of distinguished affiliates.

Led by President Leah Ward Sears, the University has 15,000 students and 3,400 faculty members who represent all regions of the United States and more than 100 foreign nations.

The Goizueta Business School was founded in 1919 and named after the former CEO of the Coca-Cola Company, Roberto C. Goizueta in 1994.

Emory is part of a city-wide network that includes The Carter Center, EmTech Biosciences, and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Emory welcomed its first international student to campus over one hundred years ago.

Emory University's mission is to create, preserve, teach, and apply knowledge in the service of humanity.

Location

Nestled within the tree-lined residential campus of Emory University, Goizueta lies just a few miles from the heart of downtown Atlanta. With a population of more than 6 million people and the world's busiest airport at its disposal, Atlanta headquarters the third-highest number of Fortune 500 corporations.

The city attracts three-fourths of the Fortune 1000 with a thriving entrepreneurial and business climate that features multinational corporations such as The Home Depot, The Coca-Cola Company, and UPS, to a vast array of small startup ventures found in our technology corridor.

Campus Life

Student life is as dynamic as it is diverse. With a student body of over 16,000, the university offers a thriving community where academic excellence meets rich extracurricular opportunities. More than 400 student organizations cater to a wide range of interests, from leadership and service to the arts and athletics, ensuring that every student finds a place to belong. Emory is a non-smoking campus.

The campus culture encourages collaboration and innovation, while Emory's location in the vibrant Atlanta area enhances student experiences with access to internships, cultural events, and career networks. The sense of community on campus fosters personal growth and lifelong connections.

Learning Environment

Grading

The Goizueta Full-time MBA program has an alternative grading format without a grade point average. Students receive grades of Distinguished (DS), High Performance (HP), Performance Standard (PS), Low Performance (LP) or No Credit (NC). Students are considered passing at all grade levels except for No Credit. There is a limit of two (2) grades of Low Performance in a semester.

The Goizueta Business School BBA Undergraduate Program uses a standard grading system of A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D, and F.

Language Instruction

All courses are taught in English. No English language courses are offered. Students must have sufficient English fluency to perform their academic activities and navigate daily life in the US.

There are 3 options for verifying English language proficiency during the initial request process:

- A recognized English language test (TOEFL, IELTS or Pearson)
- Signed documentation from an academic institution or English language school (download template letter)
- A documented interview by Emory's hosting department either in person or by video conference

Student Living

Approximate Costs

Please note that these costs are per semester and based on estimates for this academic year. Students are not required to spend the amounts noted for food, books, other living expenses, and transportation, but they must demonstrate that they have access to these funds specifically for their education.

Accommodation	$5500-$8000
Food	$2,500
Student Fees	$488
Mandatory Insurance	$2500
Class materials	$300
Other Living Expenses	$700
Total Estimate per Semester	≈$12,000 - $14,500

- This includes the fees student must pay Emory by or at Orientation of $488 per semester (2025-26).
- You must provide financial documentation (bank statements and letters) that you have sufficient funds to equal the estimated expenses for the semester.
- Family members coming on your visa status will require documentation of additional funding.

Student Accomodation

On Campus Housing

Limited spaces for on campus housing may be available for undergraduate students only. Spaces are available at Clairmont Campus, Eagle Row, and Woodruff residential center. Students must submit a housing application, and housing assignment offers are extended to students on a rolling basis.

WEBSITE

On-campus housing is limited. Most students should expect to reside in double-occupancy rooms at either Eagle Row or Clairmont Tower. The timeline and probability of receiving an on-campus housing assignment is subject to change.

Off Campus Housing

Short-term, furnished leases are not common, but are available at some apartment complexes. Many exchange students sublet, negotiate rates through Airbnb or use the Off Campus Housing Finder or Emory Housing group on Facebook. The cost for a room for fall 2025 was about $1400 per person per month. Emory is not able to make off-campus arrangements for you

On Campus Housing Options

Eagle Row:

Eagle Row lodges and houses are traditionally sorority/fraternity facilities. Exchange students seeking a uniquely American collegiate experience should consider. Each facility houses 20 to 40 students in a double-occupancy room configuration.

Clairmont Campus:

Apartment-style housing is on campus west of Clairmont Road, connected to the Clifton Road campus via Emory Shuttle. Each apartment contains a bedroom(s), a common living area, a kitchen, and laundry facilities. 2 to 4 students reside in each apartment.

Student Services

Health Insurance

Health insurance is mandatory for all exchange visitors. Emory requires all students to have health insurance. Rates for insurance coverage vary each semester. All immunization costs are covered under the Emory Insurance. Students will be automatically enrolled in the Emory University Student Health Insurance Plan. Exchange students may elect to decline this coverage by completing the Waiver Option form, if they can show proof of sufficient alternative coverage with access to covered healthcare in Atlanta.

Student Testimonials

Emory Inbound BBA Exchange Class Fall '25

Devna Joshi

*City University London,
London, United Kingdom*

“I loved my time studying at Emory and living in Atlanta. I developed personal and professional skills here that will stand to me in future. Emory has a very friendly and fun campus and is a great place to meet new people and try new activities. The city’s energy was contagious, from its lively music scene to its diverse nightlife spots. I had the opportunity to experience new cultures and visit new places within the United States, like Savannah, Miami and Los Angeles which I may not have visited otherwise and that made my time here unforgettable.”

Mouhamed Asla

American Business School of Paris, France

“Studying at Emory and living in Atlanta was an unforgettable adventure. I loved the city’s southern culture and friendly atmosphere. Emory’s program is designed to help exchange students socialize and make new friends. Weekends were filled with concerts and games—whether it was cheering on the Braves Falcons, or Atlanta United, the energy was incredible. One highlight was how easy it was to travel—the Atlanta airport is amazing and made spontaneous trips across the country simple and fun. From quick getaways to New York to beach weekends in Florida, I discovered so many new places.”

Suwhan Lim

*Yonsei University,
Seoul, South Korea*

“I had never lived in the States before, so coming here was a great opportunity for me. Atlanta was amazing—I loved the culture, the sports, and the vibe. The city is so diverse and lively, and I tried so many new foods, like Southern barbecue and grits. I even got to go to a few Hawks games, which was incredible! The energy in the arena was unreal, and now I’m a huge NBA fan. Emory’s campus was beautiful, and I met so many great people. This exchange semester was such a meaningful experience, and I’ll always remember my time in Atlanta.”

Natalia Baranera

*ESADE Business School,
Barcelona, Spain*

“Emory was an incredible experience. The community was so welcoming and I made lifelong friendships. The university has top-tier facilities, including the gym and Student Center, made living on campus really enjoyable, and living in a sorority house allowed me to fully immerse myself in the American college experience. Atlanta’s prime location and the fact that it is the world’s busiest airport made it easy to explore multiple destinations across the United States. I went on so many great trips and traveling made my experience even more exciting.”
